About the Training Courses

Our courses impart a range of para-legal skills in an informative and interactive environment. We ensure the information remains both relevant and applied through the use of presentations and exercises involving case studies. Developed by experienced lawyers, tenancy advocates and educators these courses have been designed specifically for tenant advocates, community & welfare workers, volunteers, students and consumers who support clients with housing issues.

About the Seminars

Our seminars aim to raise public awareness or public debate on current or emerging issues related to tenants and housing.

Nationally Recognised Training

TAS is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO). This registration allows TAS to assess and provide nationally recognised certification for selected courses. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is also available for these courses. For details about our nationally recognised training and/or RPL call TAS (08 9221 9499) or visit the TAS web site (www.taswa.org).

Want Us to come to You?

TAS can come to you! We offer in-house professional development training courses, information sessions or highly interactive community education for staff, tenants or client groups. Contact us today for more information.

How Can We Improve?

We are always looking for ways we can improve delivery of courses, administration processes and the types of courses or seminars on offer. Please don't hesitate to give us feedback or suggestions of any kind.
